

Pull Data Values Workflow Action

The Pull Data Values workflow action will copy field and relationship data from one related object into another object once it has transitioned into the next step.

The below video will demonstrate how to add this action.