Alert owners have access to the Alerts activity in the Portal. This activity contains the following section:

- Action Required: A list of all alerts for which you are the Alert Owner and require action.

The screenshot shows the RESOLVER interface. At the top, there is a search bar and a user profile icon. Below the search bar, there is a navigation bar with 'Portal' and 'Alerts' (the latter is highlighted). The main content area is titled 'Alerts' and contains two sections: 'Alerts' and 'Action Required'. The 'Alerts' section has a sub-header 'Alerts' and a paragraph: 'Regulatory Alerts providing advanced visibility into upcoming regulatory changes. Certain regulatory updates will require action from the business to prepare for the changes and ensure the proper controls are in place. Action is required on the alerts that have been assigned to you below.' The 'Action Required' section has a sub-header 'Action Required' and a paragraph: 'The following regulatory alerts require action.' Below this, there are two alert cards. The first card is labeled 'A-2' and titled 'OPC Guideline for Obtaining Meaningful Consent (PIPEDA)'. It includes a paragraph: 'In August 13, 2019, The Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (OSFI) published a letter entitled OSFI's Activities with respect to IFRS 17. The letter indicates, among other things, that the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) is proposing to defer the effective date for the proposed d...'. To the right of the title is a yellow button labeled 'Action Required'. The second card is labeled 'A-6' and titled 'Information Regarding FINTRAC's Suspicious Transactions Guidance and other upcoming regulatory updates'. It includes a paragraph: 'On January 2019 the Financial Transactions and Reports Analysis Centre of Canada (FINTRAC) published a new Suspicious Transaction Guidance: • What is a suspicious transaction? • Reporting suspicious transactions to FINTRAC • Money Laundering (ML) and terrorist financing (TF) indicators This guidance is ...'. To the right of the title is a yellow button labeled 'Action Required'.
